

THE HONORABLE MARSHA J. PECHMAN

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

MARKELETTA WILSON, MARIE
TOWNES, and all other similarly situated individuals,

Plaintiffs,

v.

SEATTLE HOUSING AUTHORITY, et al.,

Defendants.

No. C09-00226 MJP

PRELIMINARY APPROVAL ORDER

This matter came before the Court for consideration of the Joint Motion for Preliminary Approval of Proposed Class Action Settlement ("Joint Motion") made by Plaintiffs Markeletta Wilson and Marie Townes and Defendants Seattle Housing Authority ("SHA") and Thomas Tierney, Executive Director of SHA, in his official capacity. The Court, having considered the Joint Motion, the declarations in support of the Joint Motion, the Settlement Agreement with its exhibits, and all other matters properly before the Court, hereby orders as follows:

1. The Court finds that the Settlement Agreement was the result of serious, informed, non-collusive, and arms-length negotiations between competent counsel assisted by the Hon. Terrence Carroll (ret.); that it falls within the range of reasonableness and possible approval; and that it treats all Class Members fairly. The Court grants preliminary approval of

(No. C09-00226 MJP) – 1

1 the Settlement Agreement, and its terms are conditionally approved, subject to final approval at
2 the Fairness Hearing.

5 2. The Settlement Agreement is adopted by the Court and made part of this Order as
6 if set out in full herein. The Court, for purposes of this Order, adopts the definitions set forth in
7 the Settlement Agreement. All capitalized terms in this Order shall have the same meaning as in
8 the Settlement Agreement.

11 3. Pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 23(a) and 23(b)(2), the proposed
12 Settlement Class is hereby provisionally certified for settlement purposes only. The Settlement
13 Class is defined as follows: All SHA Section 8 voucher holders who had termination hearings
14 on or after February 20, 2006 and before August 1, 2008 and whose Section 8 vouchers were 15 terminated as a result of such hearings. The Settlement Class consists of 80 members; the 16 identities of Class Members are known and listed on Exhibit E to the Settlement Agreement.
17

19 4. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23, and for purposes of settlement
20 only, the Court makes the following preliminary findings of fact and conclusions of law:
21

- 22 a. The Settlement Class is sufficiently definite;
23
24 b. The Settlement Class is so numerous that joinder of all members of the 25 Settlement Class is impracticable;
26
27 c. There are questions of law and/or fact common to the Settlement Class;
28
29 d. Plaintiffs' claims are typical of the claims of the members of the 30 Settlement Class;
31
32 e. Plaintiffs and their counsel have and will fairly and adequately represent 33 and protect the interests of the Settlement Class; and 34
35 f. The alleged acts or omissions of Defendants which are at issue in this
36 litigation apply generally to the Settlement Class, so that final injunctive relief or corresponding 37 declaratory relief is appropriate respecting the Settlement Class as a whole.

2 5. The Court approves the proposed method of dissemination of notice set forth in
3 the Settlement Agreement. The notice meets the requirements of due process and is reasonable
4 under the circumstances. The Notice of Proposed Class Action Settlement shall be issued within
5 thirty (30) Days of the date of this Order, all as set forth in the Settlement Agreement.
7 Defendants shall notify the appropriate federal and state officials pursuant to the Class Action
8 Fairness Act of 2005, 28 U.S.C. § 1715.

10
11 6. Any Class Member who wishes to object to the fairness, reasonableness, or 12 adequacy of the Settlement Agreement must, no later than twenty-one (21) Days before the 13 Fairness Hearing, file and serve a written statement of the objection(s). The written statement
14 must include (a) a detailed statement of the Class Member's objection(s), as well as the specific
15 reasons for each objection, including any evidence and legal authority the Class Member wishes
16 to bring to the Court's attention and any evidence the Class Member wishes to introduce in 17 support of his or her objection(s); (b) the Class Member's name, address and telephone number;
18 and (c) information demonstrating that the Class Member is entitled to be included as a member
19 of the Class.

31 7. Class Members may raise an objection either on their own or through an attorney
32 hired at their own expense. If a Class Member hires an attorney other than Class Counsel to 33 represent him or her, the attorney must, no later than twenty-one (21) Days before the Fairness
34 Hearing, file and serve a notice of appearance.
35
36
37
38

39 8. Class Members or their attorneys intending to make an appearance at the Fairness
40 Hearing must, no later than twenty-one (21) Days before the Fairness Hearing, file and serve a
41 notice of their intention to appear at the hearing.
42
43
44

45 9. Any Class Member who fails to comply with paragraphs 6-8 above shall waive
46 and forfeit any and all rights he or she may have to appear separately and/or object.

23 States District Court for the Western District of Washington at Seattle, 700 Stewart Street,
24 Seattle, WA 98101. At the Fairness Hearing, the Court will consider whether to, among other
25 things: (a) grant final certification of the Settlement Class; (b) enter judgment in accordance 26 with the Settlement Agreement; (c) approve the settlement as final, fair, reasonable, adequate and
27 binding on all Class Members; (d) approve the payment of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs
28 for Class Counsel and incentive payments to the Class Representatives, if any, pursuant to
29 subsection 3.7 of the Settlement Agreement; and (e) order the release of all Class Members'
30 claims pursuant to Section 9 of the Settlement Agreement and dismiss this Action with prejudice.
